Our Mission: To Prepare and Motivate Men and Women in Agriculture for More Effective Leadership

Program Overview
The Nebraska Agricultural Leadership Council founded the Nebraska LEAD (Leadership Education/Action Development) Program in 1981 in cooperation with Agricultural Builders of Nebraska, Inc. and the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources at the University of Nebraska–Lincoln. All had recognized the need for a nonpartisan, nonpolitical organization to promote and develop future agricultural leadership. The council’s overall mission remains “to prepare and motivate men and women in agriculture for more effective leadership.”

Program Purpose
• Accelerate leadership development and improve leadership skills and abilities of Nebraska’s future agricultural leaders through exposure to diverse topics, issues, concerns, points of view, and innovative ideas.
• Increase knowledge of state, national, and international affairs.
• Prepare the problem solvers, decision makers, and spokespersons for the agriculture industry, while establishing a network of highly motivated leaders.

Program Expectations
• Attend all seminars
• Secure spouse’s and employer’s full support for program participation (if applicable)
• Possess a sincere commitment to self-improvement
• Maintain an open mind and interest
• Pay a modest annual participant fee

Program Support
Dollars provided through the following sources:
• Annual membership dues in the Nebraska Agricultural Leadership Council
• Nebraska LEAD Alumni Association membership
• Numerous individuals, corporations, foundations, and organizations
• Commitment of in-kind contributions, including campus administrators, presenters, and coordinators, statewide leaders, the University of Nebraska–Lincoln’s Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources, and many others

Program Outcomes
Graduates say they have gained:
• Self-confidence, a positive can-do attitude
• Problem-solving and decision-making skills
• Public speaking skills and a belief that they can make a difference
• New contacts and networking
• A broader view and understanding of “the bigger picture”
• Opportunities to seek out new role models and learn about different leadership styles
• Skills in proper etiquette

Dear Friend,

I am excited to think about you holding this brochure and the opportunity it offers! I just have one question for you: Are you willing to take us up on this opportunity and apply to become a member of LEAD Class 43?

The Nebraska LEAD Program was designed over 42 years ago to speed up the leadership development process, through a broad array of topics, issues, and concerns, to ultimately develop those problem solvers, decision makers and spokespersons necessary to lead agriculture and the state of Nebraska in the years to come. We truly believe and live out our mission statement every day. The success of our industry is dependent on preparing and motivating men and women in agriculture for more effective leadership.

As a member of LEAD Class XX, I can honestly say that my involvement in the Nebraska LEAD Program was a once in a lifetime opportunity. And now serving as its director since 2007, I see it in the eyes of our Fellows - the desire to lead and make a positive difference. Won’t you join us in our mission? Apply today! If you have any questions about the Nebraska LEAD Program, do not hesitate to contact me at 402-472-6810. Request an application by sending us an email to leadprogram@unl.edu or utilizing the link on our webpage.
